This is a new place-based initiative that will support two communities over several years to produce fundamental, multi-sector, community-wide changes that significantly improve the long term health and quality of life of residents.

HFSF has allocated up to $7.5 million to support the Healthy Community Partnerships in two Miami-Dade County communities. HFSF will provide up to $3.75 million per community over a six-year period. The amount of total funding awarded per community will vary. The city of North Miami is applying as the host agency for the North Miami community.
